

WELCOME

We warmly welcome you to the Brookings Seventh-day Adventist Church family. We are delighted that you have chosen to worship with us today and hope to see you again soon. May this time together strengthen your faith in Christ.

ANGEL TREE PROJECT

The Angel Tree program was started by Chuck Colson of Prison Ministries, to allow local churches to give gifts to children whose parent is incarcerated. We have the opportunity of delivering the gifts to the children in this area. If you'd like to participate in the delivery process, please contact the pastor.

NATURAL FOOD ORDER

We will be coordinating a natural food order from Azure Standard on December 27, 2010. You can place your order on the website (azurestandard.com) and designate this as the drop site. The order will be delivered in January. If you have questions, contact the church office.

CREATING A SAFE PLACE TO MINISTER

The Oregon Conference Risk Management Department will be hosting a training entitled "Creating a Safe Place to Minister" at the Holden Convention Center in Gladstone on Sunday, January 30, 2011 from 9:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m. This training will NOT be provided in Southern Oregon this year. Call the Conference office at 503-850-3500 for more information.

NEPAL PROJECTS

Our Nepal Project Fund has gone to support workers, pay church rents, help widows, orphans, worthy students and more. Right now the fund is at the lowest it has been in years. Anything that you give will be such a blessing. ~ Charles Shultz

SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTISTS BELIEVE:

As a people we hold the Bible in supreme regard as the revealer of God's truth to guide us to salvation. Our love and devotion is rooted supremely in Christ who we worship as our Savior, Creator, Lord and King.

We believe that forgiveness, healing and eternal life are offered freely to all on the basis of what Jesus has already accomplished for us at the cross, and continues to do as He ministers on our behalf in the heavenly sanctuary above. God's mercy and grace are infinite and are received by faith, to prepare a people for Jesus' second coming.

The "New Covenant" provides not only forgiveness for sin, but also God's promise to write His law on our hearts so that our greatest joy will be to do His will. We keep His commandments, not in order to be saved, but because He has already encircled us in His saving arms. His law includes also the fourth commandment Sabbath which invites us to spend a special time of fellowship with God on the seventh day.

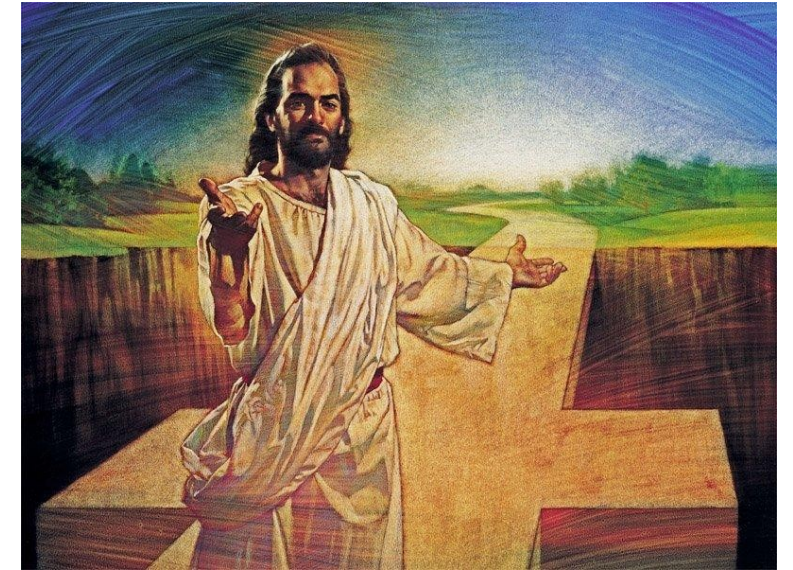

We feel compelled as a people to share with a perishing world these messages of God's love in the context of God's final judgment-hour message in Revelation 14. Because of our devotion to Christ we joyfully look forward to His soon return in the clouds of heaven when we shall see our Savior face to face.

Our mission is to be a Christ-centered, Spirit-filled church that demonstrates the power of grace and intentionally shares the good news of Christ's soon return.

"Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, was one of the two who heard John's witness and followed Jesus. The first thing he did after finding where Jesus lived was find his own brother, Simon, telling him, "We've found the Messiah" (that is, "Christ"). He immediately led him to Jesus.

“We look upon prayer as a means of getting things for ourselves, the Bible idea of prayer is that we may get to know God Himself... It is not so true that ‘prayer changes things’ as that prayer changes me and I change things. God has so constituted things that prayer on the basis of Redemption alters the way in which a man looks at things. Prayer is not a question of altering things externally, but of working wonders in a man’s disposition.
