WELCOME
We warmly welcome you to the Brookings Seventh-day Adventist Church family. We are delighted that you have chosen to worship with us today and hope to see you again soon. May this time togetherness strengthen your faith in Christ. Our guest speaker today is Pastor Rudy Salazar, a Trust Officer at the Oregon Conference. The McCutchenne Team is hosting the potluck today. Bring your favorite Mexican dishes and willing hands to help clean up so all can enjoy more family time in the afternoon.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE FOR 2010-2011—1ST READING: Tom Bischoff, Ruth Eldred, Cheri Hoie, Don Kirk, Ernie Madden,

THANK YOU
James and Mandy Hanley would like to take a moment, to send a special thank you to all involved in making our wedding happen. We can’t put into words, just how special everyone at this church is and how much you all mean to Us. You have all made this town and our wonderful church feel like home, you also have given us something we will remember for the rest of our lives. Thank you again for being a part of our new start in life.

DO YOU HAVE A WILL?
“Do you have a Will? Let the Trust Department at the Oregon Conference help you draw up your Will. They can also help you with legal documents like Durable Power of Attorney and Advance Directives. This is a free service to the Members of the Oregon Conference. Give Pastor Glen Gessele a call for an appointment at 1-800-233-2727 or Cell (503) 709-4326.

WEDNESDAY AM IS DEADLINE FOR BULLETIN INFORMATION.

SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTISTS BELIEVE:
As a people we hold the Bible in supreme regard as the revealer of God’s truth to guide us to salvation. Our love and devotion is rooted supremely in Christ who we worship as our Savior, Creator, Lord and King.

We believe that forgiveness, healing and eternal life are offered freely to all on the basis of what Jesus has already accomplished for us at the cross, and continues to do as He ministers on our behalf in the heavenly sanctuary above. God’s mercy and grace are infinite and are received by faith, to prepare a people for Jesus’ second coming.

The “New Covenant” provides not only forgiveness for sin, but also God’s promise to write His law on our hearts so that our greatest joy will be to do His will. We keep His commandments, not in order to be saved, but because He has already encircled us in His saving arms. His law includes also the fourth commandment Sabbath which invites us to spend a special time of fellowship with God on the seventh day.

We feel compelled as a people to share with a perishing world these messages of God’s love in the context of God’s final judgment-hour message in Revelation 14. Because of our devotion to Christ we joyfully look forward to His soon return in the clouds of heaven when we shall see our Savior face to face.

Our mission is to be a Christ-centered, Spirit-filled church that demonstrates the power of grace and intentionally shares the good news of Christ’s soon return.

“BLESSED (HAPPY, fortunate, to be envied) is he who has forgiveness of his transgression continually exercised upon him, whose sin is covered. Blessed (happy, fortunate, to be envied) is the man to whom the Lord imputes no iniquity and in whose spirit there is no deceit. Psalm 32:1-2 Amplified
