SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTISTS BELIEVE:
As a people we hold the Bible in supreme regard as the revealer of God’s truth to guide us to salvation. Our love and devotion is rooted supremely in Christ who we worship as our Savior, Creator, Lord and King.

We believe that forgiveness, healing and eternal life are offered freely to all on the basis of what Jesus has already accomplished for us at the cross, and continues to do as He ministers on our behalf in the heavenly sanctuary above. God’s mercy and grace are infinite and are received by faith, to prepare a people for Jesus’ second coming.

The “New Covenant” provides not only forgiveness for sin, but also God’s promise to write His law on our hearts so that our greatest joy will be to do His will. We keep His commandments, not in order to be saved, but because He has already encircled us in His saving arms. His law includes also the fourth commandment Sabbath which invites us to spend a special time of fellowship with God on the seventh day.

We feel compelled as a people to share with a perishing world these messages of God’s love in the context of God’s final judgment-hour message in Revelation 14. Because of our devotion to Christ we joyfully look forward to His soon return in the clouds of heaven when we shall see our Savior face to face.

Our mission is to be a Christ-centered, Spirit-filled church that demonstrates the power of grace and intentionally shares the good news of Christ’s soon return.

SERMON NOTES
“FOGGED IN”
Fog is defined as something that happens to us that seems to contradict everything that we know about God and His plan for our life.
I. Joseph—a young man’s time in the fog results in an amazing life.
   A. Something is going on behind the scenes of our life.
      Job 1:8-12
   B. Life is a balance of good and bad things. Job 2:9-10
   C. No matter what happens-trust in God. Job 13:15
   D. Trial “by fog” can purify our life. Job 23:10
   E. Sometimes there is a connection between fog and our relationships with people. Job 42:10
II. Most of those mentioned in Hebrews 11 did not receive the promise. Many died while “fogged in.” Why?
   A. “Because God had us in mind and had something better and greater in view for u, so that they (these heroes and heroines of faith) should not come to perfection apart from us, (that is before we could join them).” Hebrews 11:40. (Amplified Bible). When do we join them?
   B. Life is a balance of good and bad things. Job 2:9
   C. No matter what happens-trust in God. Job 13:15
   D. I Corinthians 13:12—When?
   E. 2 Corinthians 4:15-18—It does not matter if we can see or understand everything on this earth. We need to learn how to see that which is eternal.
III. The resurrection will provide us with all the answers needed.
   Job 19:25,26
   A. John the Baptist died while still in the “fog.”
   B. Most of those mentioned in Hebrews 11 did not receive the promise. Many died while “fogged in.” Why?
   “Because God had us in mind and had something better and greater in view for us, so that they (these heroes and heroines of faith) should not come to perfection apart from us, (that is before we could join them).” Hebrews 11:40. (Amplified Bible). When do we join them?
   C. “God has made everything beautiful for its own time. He has planted eternity in the human heart, but even so, people cannot see the whole scope of God’s work from beginning to end.” Ecclesiastes 3:11 (NLT) When?
   D. 2 Corinthians 4:15-18—It does not matter if we can see or understand everything on this earth. We need to learn how to see that which is eternal.
