Special Offering

This Sabbath, September 9, churches across the North American Division will collect a special offering to support the relief efforts of Adventist Community Services (ACS) after millions in Texas and Louisiana were impacted by the catastrophic effects of Hurricane Harvey.

Church members can help by taking part in this special offering by marking their donations for the “ACS Hurricane Relief” fund. Most of these funds will go to benefit the work of Adventist Community Services, serving devastated communities without regard to religion, race, or ideology—emulating the ministry of Jesus. The remainder of the offering will help Adventist churches and schools impacted by the storm.

Please pray for the people of Texas and Louisiana and give to this special offering that will help them rebuild their lives and recover their shattered dreams.

Our Beliefs in Brief: #22 — Christian Behavior

Jesus’ ultimate sacrifice gives us confidence to approach God, knowing we are forgiven. Now Jesus is reviewing our lives before returning, so there’s no question that His judgments are made in love.

There is a sanctuary in heaven, the true tabernacle that the Lord set up and not humans. In it Christ ministers on our behalf, making available to believers the benefits of His atoning sacrifice offered once for all on the cross. At His ascension, He was inaugurated as our great High Priest and, began His intercessory ministry, which was typhified by the work of the high priest in the holy place of the earthly sanctuary. In 1844, at the end of the prophetic period of 2300 days, He entered the second and last phase of His atoning ministry, which was typhified by the work of the high priest in the most holy place of the earthly sanctuary. It is a work of investigative judgment which is part of the ultimate disposition of all sin, typhified by the cleansing of the ancient Hebrew sanctuary on the Day of Atonement. In that typical service the sanctuary was cleansed with the blood of animal sacrifices, but the heavenly things are purified with the perfect sacrifice of the blood of Jesus. The investigative judgment reveals to heavenly intelligences who among the dead are asleep in Christ and therefore, in Him, are deemed worthy to have part in the first resurrection. It also makes manifest who among the living are abiding in Christ, keeping the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus, and in Him, therefore, are ready for translation into His everlasting kingdom. This judgment vindicates the justice of God in saving those who believe in Jesus. It declares that those who have remained loyal to God shall receive the kingdom. The completion of this ministry of Christ will mark the close of human probation before the Second Advent. (Lev. 16; Num. 14:34; Ezek. 4:6; Dan. 7:9-27; 8:13, 14; 9:24-27; Heb. 1:3; 2:16, 17; 4:14-16; 8:1-5; 9:11-28; Rev. 8:3-5; 11:19; 14:6, 7, 20:12; 14:12; 22:11, 12.)

"There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit."
Romans 8:1 (KJV)
